

Abacus Statement on News Of The World Correction July 2010

With the assistance of the Press Complaints Commission a resolution has been reached between Abacus and The News Of The World over an article published in the newspaper on April 4th 2010 stating that Abacus had axed a payment to Private Tatlock.

The News Of The World acknowledge that they wrongly stated that the payment had been stopped and printed a follow up story together with the correction in the newspaper published on 20th June 2010.
